Ethel Smith is one of America's most famous women entertainers. She first noticed the Hammond organ on a Hollywood studio set at the time when it was only recently developed. She took to it immediately, and adopted it as her solo instrument. At 4.0 from 3ZB in Ethel Smith's Toy Parade she shows her mastery of the organ, and her ability to appeal to children as well as adults in some children's melodies.

At 8 o'clock tonight, 2ZA presents "Tops in Pops," a weekly programme featuring the latest in popular recorded music.
