Balladry is almost a lost art, and minstrelsy a forsaken profession. No longer does the lute player ride his mule from castle to castle singing for his supper and jesting for his bed. Radio and the mechanical devices of our age have produced a new kind of minstrel. Listen to some of these modern minstrels like Burl Ives, Elton Hayes, Josh White and Wilfred Thomas from 3ZB at 5.45.

Another fortnightly bulletin of news and information from the film and theatre world may be heard today in 2ZA's "Women's Hour."
