Travelling alone

...but definitely

not on their own....

Wave them
goodbye without a worry... from the Airport Hostess who shepherds them
on to the plane...
through the First Officer who looks in on the flight and sees
they have books to read
... to the bus driver who delivers them to waiting friends or relatives at the destination Air Centre, they're in good hands
... and surrounded by
help... no luggage
to worry about (N.A.C.
looks after it for them)... cafeteria
refreshments if they're peckish (the Airport Hostess will direct them). Is it any wonder parents say "flying's
the way to send them"
... especially as, all things considered, it costs no more.

NAC Flying's the way to travel!
