

A. E. MATTHEWS

"All my relations lived to be over 100.
You can't expect me to do the same"

Coming Round the Bend, WITH DENIS GLOVER

I AM somewhat puzzled to find a local journalist using the phrase "somewhat unique."

But perhaps he had just "witnessed a sight."

YOUTH careless of life is often surrounded in cottonwool by old age too careful to die.

YET it is only their imagined lives old people hold up to us, practically sure as they are how we should live ours.

IN return for what little she has, a woman wants her own world, and yours as well.

THE inexplicable mystery about the best art is that it isn't done primarily for money.

PITY the poor farmers: they always have their backs to the wool.

I DON'T want to feel "a new man." I only want to be the same, only more so.

History can be fun
When the battle has been won.

FINDING an old city church being pulled down, I enquired what was to take its place. By Mammon, a bank!

THE world seems to give us more and more adding machines and less and less of our own to add up.

What is that shrillness,
My sweet, my sweet?
The newsboys crying Murder
In the street.

THE whole of music bears witness to the inadequacy of speech.
