

(Solution to No. 808)

Clues Across

- Like Virtue, the warder apparently brings his own (6).
- It goes back in 10 across (3).
- Sound part of primeval ideology (5).
- It's a carrot! (anag.) (10).
- Most of this post is new (5).
- Worked with a red poet (8).
- Only fair to middling (2, 2).
- Tender (5).
- Today brings a sycophant (5).
- A Shakespearian villain? I'll have a go! (4).
- Parts of the face, contorted after use? (8).

Clues Down

- So near to sanity (6).
- It's often given a stiff beating (5, 2, 3).
- Went back over again with a mark in red (8).
- He hides in vain (4).
- Taxes with confused tears (5).
- A disease contracted making a bee-line for home? (5).
- Give it a slight turn and the ship's companies will appear (5).
- Where 23 down had her adventures (10).
- Vulgar, beastly sound! (3).
- Hardly the game to cause Alf to lob! (8).
- When this was opened there was an unexpected chorus (3).

"THE LISTENER" CROSSWORD

No Vain Glory

- Composer who underwent a regal transformation (5).
- Distorted tales of Pat in everyone's mouth (4, 6).
- I'd follow a smashed-up car with a bitter result (5).
- All this is quite ready (3).
- Weapons for gay dogs? (6).
- This officer is not necessarily small-minded (5).
- Value (6).
- Nevil Shute wrote of a town like this (5).
- Possible spot for desert dates? (5).
- "So the two brothers and their murder'd man — past fair Florence" ("Isabella," Keats) (4).

No. 809 (Constructed by R.W.H.)

FORGOTTEN MEN is the title of a new series of three BBC radio biographies beginning from 3YC on Wednesday, August 8, and 1YC on Friday, August 10, and to be heard later from other YC stations. The subjects are men who, going overseas from Britain, took the glory of their achievement for the chief reward of their exertion. They are Mountstuart Elphinstone, of India, Alexander McKay, of Uganda, and Sir George Taubman Goldie, the founder of Nigeria.

In the history of British rule in India, Elphinstone emerges as one of the most engaging as well as one of the wisest figures. Early in the 19th century, after helping consolidate British possession in India, he wrote, "We must not dream of perpetual possession. A time of separation must come and it is for our interest to have an early separation from an educated people rather than a violent rupture with a backward nation."

McKay was a talented young engineer who went out with the first Church Missionary Society Expedition to Central Africa in 1876. As well as trying to convert King Mtesa and his court to Christianity, he translated the Bible into their language, taught the young people to read, erected and worked a carpenter's shop and smithy, dug wells and improved the villagers' lot generally by using his engineering knowledge. And all this in the face of opposition from every quarter.

From Swiss craftsmen to adorn milady

DOXA

DOXA—cherished for generations by the women of Europe and America! Exquisitely designed in classic harmony DOXA is the watch which becomes a fashionable jewel.

LADIES DOXA WATCHES

Chrome—Steel back
17 jewel £17-15-0
Goldfilled 17 jewel
£19-7-6
All-Steel, Shock-resistant, the smallest, daintiest Water-proof watch. £22-5-0

MENS'
DOXA WATCHES
from £17-2-6
to £24-17-6

HIGH GRADE
DOXA
WATCHES

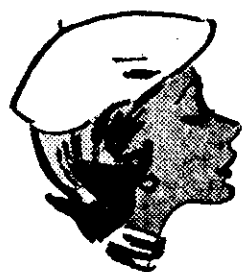

MUFFIN

BRETON

Regd. Des. No. 876488
Patents pending

Chic from every angle

ANGLOBASQUE

KANGOL

fashions

Agent: Lyte-Stannus Ltd., P.O. Box 1224, Wellington.