

"SHELLS OF NEW ZEALAND"
—by A. W. B. Powell

An illustrated handbook on New Zealand shells, revised and up-to-date—a guide to identifying and appreciating our shells—over 2,200 species and sub-species with 530 illustrated 17/6

"PLANTS OF NEW ZEALAND"
—Laing and Blackwell

Plant lovers, observant tourists and the general reader will appreciate the new edition of this beautifully illustrated, well-indexed, 500-page guide to our plant life—written in non-technical language but scientifically accurate. 28/6.

"POLYNESIAN MYTHOLOGY"
Sir George Grey

The story of Hinemoa and all the other well-known Maori legends. Obtained first-hand by Sir George Grey from the Maori chiefs and Tohungas, they are republished as they were written—with a freshness untainted by pakeha or modern influence. 17/6.

BOOKS

By

New Zealanders

BOOKS

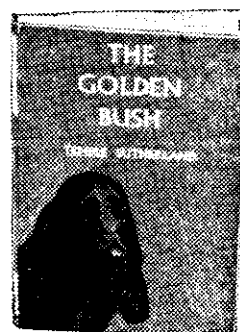

About

New Zealand

"THE GREENSTONE DOOR"
—W. Satchell

Yet another new edition—a New Zealand classic, this is an enthralling and heart-moving story of Pakeha and Maori and of the war that finally sealed the bond of peace in the blood of the two races. 15/-.

"THE GOLDEN BUSH"
—Temple Sutherland

Third impression, just published—the dramatic, humorous and human story of the author, his wife and their dog and how they made ends meet in the New Zealand back country during the depression. 15/-

"EARLY NEW ZEALAND FAMILIES"

(Second Series)—by D. Cresswell
Fascinating and historic stories packed with human interest, anecdotes and humour, and dealing largely with Pakeha and Maori families of the North Island. 18/6.

ARRIVING SHORTLY...

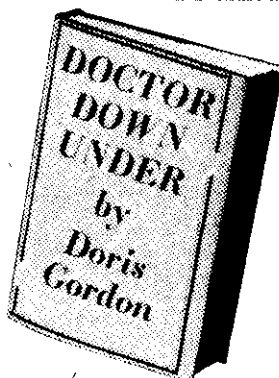

"DOCTOR DOWN UNDER"

The Sequel to "Backblocks Baby Doctor"—by Dr. Doris Gordon

The conclusion of New Zealand's most famous medical autobiography—further experiences of a family doctor 40 years ago and provocative and outspoken comments on Social Security, State Medicine and the Health Department.

ORDER YOUR COPY TODAY

Price 15/-

"A HISTORY OF NEW ZEALAND LIFE"

Morrell & Hall

Eminently readable and containing a reassessment of many historical personages and events, this most recently published modern history will hold the interest of both general reader and student. 16/6.

"SONS OF FRANCE"

A Forgotten Influence on New Zealand History.
—Mary Catherine Goulter

A story that was almost overlooked because its reticent heroes seldom wrote or wrote in French—a courageous and human chapter in our history—the story of 7 missionary priests who arrived in New Zealand from 1838 onwards. 20/-.

Available from your local bookseller or from

Whitcombe & Tombs Ltd.

CHRISTCHURCH HAMILTON
AUCKLAND LOWER HUTT
WELLINGTON TIMARU
DUNEDIN INVERCARGILL