Some lucky person will start the New Year right by winning £2,000. The drawing of "My Lucky New Year" Art Union takes place this morning at 9.30 and will be broadcast by all ZB stations.

Son of a chemist, and himself a pharmacy graduate, Eddie Duchin studied the piano from childhood. His first musical engagement was pianist with Leo Reisman's orchestra—when Eddie formed his own band his first vocalist was Dorothy Lamour and for his first recording in 1931 Frances Langford was the vocalist. 2ZA listeners will hear Eddie Duchin's orchestra and piano at 7.30 tonight.

Followers of 2ZB's 7.15 p.m. feature "The World Laughed" will tune in this evening to hear the final episode.

If request sessions are any indication, 1ZB should have a number of western fans tuned in at 5 o'clock to hear "Home On the Range," a selection of Hill Billy tunes.

Trade names appearing in Commercial Division programmes are published by arrangement.
