Those Auckland listeners who are devotees of radio detective stories will be interested to note that at 7.30 tonight from 1ZB Perry Mason commences the Case of the Vigilant Niece.

Horace Heidt and his Orchestra are known in this country chiefly through their recordings of such hits as "Ti-Pi-Tin," and "On a Simmery Summery Day." Pianist Frankie Carle was a member of this orchestra before starting out with his own group, and it was during this period that he wrote many of his own popular songs. 2ZA will feature recordings by Horace Heidt at 6 o'clock this evening.

At one o'clock today under the title of "The Stars Entertain," 4ZB will broadcast a programme with an international flavour consisting of recordings by Don Felipe and his Cuban Caballeros, Tino Rossi, tenor, and Mona Litter, pianist.

1ZB undertake the task of forecasting some of this year's well-known tunes tonight at 6.30 in a programme entitled 1950 Record Hits.

Trade names appearing in Commercial Division programmes are published by arrangement.
