The romantic episodes in the lives of great men and women have made possible some of the best novels and films. These are presented in complete story form from 4ZB every Monday at 3.0.

At 5 o'clock, 1ZB presents "Forgotten Songs," a selection of some tunes that came and went almost without notice. Many may have deserved a better fate, but whatever your opinion of them, you'll find this an interesting thirty minutes.

"Not only is he a master of vocal difficulties, but his mastery includes the clear enunciation of the English language, and the making of this tongue beautiful in song." Thus wrote a notable critic of John McCormack's inimitable vocal art. Listeners may judge for themselves, by tuning to 2ZB at 3.45, when this artist will be featured.
