A treat for 2ZA's younger listeners is on the air at 5 o'clock today with the first broadcast of the BBC's "Wind in the Willows."

"Take It from Here" has been steadily climbing in popularity since its first broadcast, until it ranks as one of the most widely listened-to broadcasts today. You can take it from us that you're due for a treat with "Take It From Here," from the ZB stations at 8.15.

The twang of a bowstring that disturbs the silent glades of Sherwood Forest; a score of green-clad outlaws that merge into the verdant background of undergrowth; the pageantry of medieval court and custom; these are memories that linger from our first introduction to the fable of Robin Hood. Young and old can capture the magic of this classic in the BBC feature which is broadcast from 1ZB every Sunday at 5.15.
