What promises to be an enthralling story, the BBC feature "The Master of Ballantrae" has its first broadcast from 2ZA at 7.45 tonight.

At 2.0 today 4ZB presents the Gilbert and Sullivan opera "Patience." This comic opera was first performed at the opening of D'Oyly Carte's new theatre the Savoy. Its success was tempestuous, and a few months later Arthur Sullivan was knighted by Queen Victoria.

Travel, they say, broadens the mind. We who have not been able to share this experience can at least derive pleasure from the relating of the journeyings of others. Far-away places with strange sounding names are no further away than your radio dial if you choose to share the adventures of a New Zealander abroad, and his recollections in "This is Holland," broadcast from 1ZB at 7.0 every Sunday.
