8.0 The Canterbury Tales: The Pardoner's Preamble and Tale (BBC), introduced by Professor P. S. Ardern (NZBS)

The Pardoner's Tale has an analogue in an Italian miscellany. The Pardoner discourses on the evils of gluttony and drunkenness, gambling and swearing. This theme is illustrated by the story of three revellers who, in plague-time, set out on a search for Death, who has killed one of their comrades. An old man tells them they will find him under a certain tree. There they discover a heap of gold. Each designs to get sole possession of the treasure, but they only succeed in killing one another.
