In the afternoon from 1ZB today, listeners may hear at 3.35 a group of "Light Classics," presented by such artists as Eileen Joyce, Yehudi Menuhin and Cedric Sharpe.

Anthony Strange, a young Australian tenor, has introduced a number of new and interesting ballads to radio audiences by medium of his records. He will be heard in a short recorded recital from 2ZB at 3.45 this afternoon.

4ZB's "Morning Star" this morning at 7.35 is Reginald Foort, organist. He first studied with Basil Johnson at Rugby, then at the Royal College of Music under Sir Walter Parratt, and it was here he got his F.R.C.O. At the age of 17 he was a church organist and choir master, and spent his spare time studying the piano. After a fine war record in the Navy in World War I, he turned cinema organist and is best known in this sphere.
