The first episode of "The Jack Smith Show" may be heard from the four ZB Stations and 2ZA tonight at 7 o'clock—a Voice of America programme.

John Steinbeck, Shirley Jackson, James Street, and Conrad Aiken; all were masters of literature's most exacting medium—the short story. These great writers and many others contribute miniatures to entertain you in the Voice of America programme to be heard from the four ZB Stations at 4.0 p.m., "Short Story Theatre."

Since the writing of "The Snow Goose," Italian born Paul Gallico has placed several books on the market, all of them delightful and most unusual. "The Snow Goose," however, with its stirring tale from Dunkirk, its moving picture of the cripple and the young girl brought together through their mutual love of the big Canadian goose will ever warm the heart of the reader. Tonight at 6.30 from 3ZB, Herbert Marshall will be heard again telling the story of "The Snow Goose."
