Two of England's most celebrated comedians, Flanagan and Allen, first achieved notice at the Empire Theatre, Sheffield, in 1932. Since then they have attained fame. At 4.45 this afternoon 4ZB will present "Flanagan and Allen Entertain."

Pure Irish (with just a touch of Swiss) is Christopher Lynch, to whom John McCormack referred as "the one most likely to succeed me." He was born in the little town of Rathkeale, County Limerick. This young singer will be heard from 2ZB at 9.30 this morning.

Two of Britain's stage and radio favourites well known to New Zealanders since their concert tour a year or two ago, Webster Booth and Anne Ziegler, have a repertoire of songs of wide appeal. Grand opera, musical comedy and ballads are all in the day's work, and singly or as a pair these artists are sure of a welcome. They will be heard from 3ZB today at 4.15.
