Kate Smith was one of the earliest stars that American radio built into a legend. At one time top performer on the air, her star has waned a little with time but some of the lustre is still there, as will be demonstrated with four songs in 1ZB's "Evening Star," at 5.45 tonight.

A highlight of 4ZB's programme today will be the group of Maori melodies presented at 4.0 p.m.

A programme of songs by Egbert Van Alstyne, one of the well-known popular song composers of this century, will be broadcast by 2ZA at 9.32 this evening.
