CURTAIN UP FOR N.Z. PLAYERS

N.P.S. photograph

Richard and Edith Campion are interviewed by Elsie Lloyd during rehearsals of "The Young Elizabeth," with which the New Zealand Players will open their first season this week. The interview, and excerpts from the play, will be heard from 2ZB this Friday, May 8, at 3.15 p.m. (See also page 6)

Planting Trees this Season?

The planting season is on us again, and by now preparation will be well in hand. If you are planting trees this year, it would be well to consider their final size before you plant them. Many have had to be felled, topped, or lopped because the maturing tree is too large for its site. Private plantings are most important for Forestry in this country and will greatly help to
