Trade names appearing in Commercial Division programmes are published by arrangement.

Violinist and composer Fritz Kreisler introduced many new compositions to the concert platform, as rediscovered works of 17th Century musicians, to disclose later, on their acceptance, that they were his own music. This subterfuge seems unnecessary today in the light of the composer's eminence, but at the time it helped his rise to fame. Some of these compositions played by the composer will be heard from 1ZB today at 2.15 p.m.

Still in his late twenties, Giuseppe di Stefano has many years of singing before him and critics predict that he will be one of the most outstanding tenors of the operatic stage. He will be heard from 2ZB at 2.15 this afternoon.
