One of America's best known clowns, Jimmy Durante, as early as 1923 boasted his own night club on East Broadway and by 1931 was firmly established in Hollywood. Absent for some years from show business, he returned in 1943 with a new series of film roles and, has since re-established himself as one of America's greatest clowns. Some of his recordings will be heard from 1ZB today at 5.45 p.m. in "Evening Star."

Tonight at 10 o'clock 4ZB will present their final broadcast of "The Strange Life of Deacon Brodie."

Al Martino and Frankie Laine, two vocalists who have reached the top of recent hit parades, will be heard from Station 2ZA at 8.30 this evening.
