Trade names appearing in Commercial Division programmes are published by arrangement.

A quiz with a new twist, playing regularly from the four ZB Stations and 2ZA is "What's My Line" in which English celebrities endeavour to identify various competitors with their respective trades or professions. It's all good fun and the panel are your hosts from 9.0 to 9.30 p.m. this Thursday and every week at the same time.

Untimely death in New York cut short a career that promised to make the name of Oscar Natzka famous throughout the operatic and concert world. Fortunately he had made many records that preserve his fine voice and some of these are in the 2ZB programme at 2.15 today.

Tonight at 6.30 listeners will hear 4ZB's final presentation of "Robin Hood."

"To Town on Two Pianos," to be broadcast by 2ZA at 9.32 this evening, presents some of the best-known duopianist combinations in the field of popular music.
