The great treasury of the classics is the source from which Chip Stevens draws his "Music to Remember" from 1ZB every Wednesday at 5.30 p.m. Although primarily designed for the young enthusiast, and telling the stories of some of the great works, this programme should interest everyone.

Robert Merrill made his debut at the New York Metropolitan Opera, but since then has succeeded in light opera, films, and in concert tours; he is one of the most sought after young baritones in America. He will be heard from 2ZB this afternoon at 2.15.
