Sometimes spoken of as Caruso's successor, Gigli was born the son of an Italian pharmacist, and hard work and love of music enabled him to rise to stardom in a country where great singers abound. Making his operatic debut in 1914, Gigli has since toured France, Spain, South America and the United States, and today he is recognised as the dean of living tenors. This great artist performs from 1ZB at 4.0 today.

Rosita Serrano hails from Chile, but she has since found favour in cabarets in the Continent and America. She has a delightful personality, which is apparent in her recordings, some of which listeners may hear from 2ZB at 4.15.

"The Black Arrow" has been described as one of the greatest revenge stories ever written. This Robert Louis Stevenson classic will be heard from 4ZB tonight at 7.45.

At 8 o'clock every Thursday evening, 2ZA presents "Tops in Pops," thirty minutes of the latest in recorded popular music, compered by Norman Allen.
