Close harmony owes much to the success of the Mills Brothers, a group long established in entertainment. Originally comprising four brothers, the group suffered a temporary setback on the death of one of the fraternity, but Mills senior, the father of the boys, stepped into the breach and has since remained part of the foursome. Like good wine, the Mills Brothers improve with age, and their latest recordings are among their best. These are heard from 1ZB today at 8.45 in Men of Note.

At 9.30 this evening 4ZB brings you their weekly selection of Scottish country dances.

"Wealth" will be the keynote of 2ZA's 7 o'clock programme this evening, when the first of a weekly series of stories about "Famous Fortunes" is broadcast.
