The first broadcast of "Horatio Hornblower" will be heard from the five commercial stations at 9.0 this evening.

During the last war, the R.A.F. handed together a group of musicians who called themselves the R.A.F. Dance Band. After they were demobbed they called themselves the Squadronaires and were directed by Jimmy Miller. As in their service days they have maintained a very high standard and are one of England's leading dance and stage bands. At 4.45 today 4ZB brings you recordings by the Squadronaires.

The nimble fingers of West Indian-born Winifred Atwell take the air from 2ZA in "At the Keyboard," at 10.45 this morning.
