Not every opera star has the opportunity of building himself a reputation in popular music, but Ezio Pinza achieved such a distinction with his portrayal of the middle-aged French planter in the Rodgers and Hammerstein Broadway success, "South Pacific." In addition to a magnificent voice, the famous basso brought to musical comedy a fine sense of the dramatic and a flair for stagecraft developed by many years of operatic experience. This artist is the Evening Star from 12B at 5.45 this evening.

The courage shown by Jane Froman after her aircraft accident has won her much admiration. The film made of her life was a tribute by the film industry, and now the entertainment world may applaud her, as she is appearing in cabaret. She is able to stand supported by a steel brace, but her voice has not suffered and, in fact, critics have found a new depth to it. Jane Froman is the featured artist from 2ZB at 3.45.

At half-past ten this morning, Station 2ZA presents their first broadcast of the serial "Barbara Dale."
