Many of today's greatest artists have been recorded by the new long-playing technique—one which offers more faithful reproduction and a wider range of tonal fidelity. Among these artists is Jan Peerce, the Metropolitan Opera tenor, who is featured from 1ZB tonight on the latest long-playing discs in "Magic of Microgroove" at 8.30.

Two rising stars of opera may be heard from 2ZB at 2.15 today. They are Luigi Infantino and Giuseppe di Stefano who have tenor voices that are outstanding among the operatic artists of today.

Charles Kullman graduated from Yale University in 1924 to enter the medical profession. Unfortunately, financial difficulties prevented him from continuing, and he returned to music, a career for which he had received a good grounding as a choir boy in his home town in Connecticut. 3ZB will feature recordings by this popular artist in "From Medicine to Music," to be heard at 4.45 today.
