The first broadcast of the new serial "Twenty-Six Hours" may be heard at 8.30 this evening from the four ZB stations.

When it was announced in 1951 that Lawrence Tibbett was to take over from Frank Sinatra as star performer on the American radio programme "Your Hit Parade," concert-goers raised disapproving eyebrows. Contrary to public opinion his venture into the more commercial fields increased his popularity. 3ZB will play four of his records in tonight's "Evening Star," to be heard at ten o'clock.

Australian conductor Verdon Williams inherited his outstanding musical ability from his late father. He is one of his country's foremost choir leaders and his work as conductor of the Waaf Choir during the war years will be long remembered. Although confessing a slight preference for piano, his greatest enthusiasm is for orchestral work and string orchestras for preference. At 4.0 today 4ZB presents Verdon Williams and the 3DB Orchestra.

Palmerston North's "Tawharu Quintette" may be heard in recordings from 2ZA at half-past-eight this evening.

'KLIPPER' ties keep their shape — no matter what happens!
