

NEW ZEALAND

LISTENER

JOURNAL OF THE NEW ZEALAND BROADCASTING SERVICE

Incorporating N.Z. RADIO RECORD

Registered as a Newspaper
Vol. 29, No. 733, July 31, 1953

Programmes for August 3—9

Fourpence

THEY PLAYED WALES IN 1905 — REMEMBER?
(See page 7)

Turnbull Library photograph

ARBOR DAY

Arbor Day will be celebrated this year on August 13th. Since this festival was first held in America in 1872 it has spread all over the world. In New Zealand it reminds us of our responsibility to trees, of our duty to renew them, and pay homage to their use and beauty. On Arbor Day we help to restore the year's depleted stocks and so do our part to

Keep New Zealand Green

NEW ZEALAND FOREST SERVICE • SOIL CONSERVATION COUNCIL