For many of us, the humble harmonica remains our single contact with music. Millions of harmonica players exist but few ever attain the technical mastery illustrated by Larry Adler. So renowned is his artistry that composers as eminent as Vaughan Williams have composed works featuring the harmonica. Adler may be heard from 12B at 9.30 this morning in popular and classical recordings.

Ralph Flannagan, who was at one time arranger for the late Glenn Miller, formed his own band after being demobbed in 1945. Like his old band mate, Tex Beneke, Ralph has retained the old Miller styling, as you will be able to hear at 4.15 this afternoon when 4ZB will be presenting Ralph Flannagan's orchestra.

At 9.45 every Friday evening from 2ZA, Norman Allen presents a preview of forthcoming weekend sporting activity in Manawatu and surrounding districts.
