Trade names appearing in Commercial Division programmes are published by arrangement.

The fantastic story of espionage in wartime Turkey, published as "Operation Cicero," has few equals. Based on fact, this story of a valet who traded Britain's top secrets for a fortune, is now being heard from all the ZBs every Tuesday and Wednesday in the "Women's Hour." It is called "Five Fingers."

One of the highlights of the last Royal Command Performance was the appearance of Flanagan and Allen in some of the numbers they have made famous. Owing to illness, they no longer appear on the stage together, but audiences may remember them with pleasure. Some of their old favourites will be heard from 2ZB at 4.0 today

Two new features are to be heard from Station 2ZA. Beginning today at 10.15 a.m., there will be the first episode of "Harp in the South," a serial based on the book of the same name by New Zealander Ruth Park, and at 8.0 p.m. the first broadcast of "The Hardy Family," a series of stories about the lives of a group of Americans well-known to filmgoers of a few years ago.
