CANADA.—The Golden Jubilee of a Priest.—The sacerdotal Golden Jubilee of the Rev. Father Philippe Hypolite Suzor, Vicar-General of the diocese of Nicolet, was celebrated on September 26. Over 200 priests were present. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Father Mathieu, rector of Quebec Laval University. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, accompanied by Lady Laurier, arrived at nine o'clock. A grand banquet was held at twelve o'clock in the convent. The speeches were opened by Mgr. Gravel, who announced that Father Suzor had been named a domestic prelate by the Pope. Father Suzor made a touching answer. Sir Wilfrid Laurier congratulated Father Suzor in a few well-chosen words, remarking that he was both a friend and an ancient parishioner of his. Monsieur Suzor was born at Quebec on May 1, 1826, and was ordained priest on September 26, 1849, by Mgr Turgeon, then Archbishop of Quebec.

Good Feeling between all Denominations.—At an open meeting of the Catholic Order of Foresters, held in Winnipeg, Manitoba, on September 13, in honour of Archbishop Bruchesi, of Montreal, Mayor Andrews welcomed his Grace and spoke of the friendly feelings which exist amongst all the citizens of Winnipeg, regardless of creed. Archbishop Langevin said he was glad to hear the nice terms in which the Mayor had spoken of the social relations that existed and should exist amongst the citizens of Winnipeg. He was sure the Mayor was sincere in what he had said, and he willingly re-echoed the Mayor's expressions. He hoped that these feelings would prevail over the whole country and bring peace, tranquillity and mutual respect for the rights of all. He was glad the Archbishop of Montreal was there. They all knew that Archbishop Bruchesi could do a good deal for the cause of justice and right and his word went along way. Not long ago his word brought about peace and prosperity in the commercial institutions of Montreal, and, knowing this, they were all delighted to have him visit Winnipeg at this time, and see for himself the actual state of affairs. Archbishop Bruchesi, in replying, said that the words the Mayor had uttered should be the programme of the day for all men in all parties. He (the Archbishop) belonged to a French city, where all the inhabitants lived in perfect peace together. The Catholics were in a majority, but as Archbishop and as a citizen he would always be opposed to any mode of action which would be against those who did not belong to his own Church, and as he was respectful of the convictions of others, he thought he was entitled to expect and to hope that others should always respect his rights and convictions.

ENGLAND.—A New Catholic Magazine.—The new magazine which is to be brought out under the auspices of his Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster is to bear the title of Faith of our Fathers and the Net of St. Peter. The first number was to appear last month.

Prayers for the Soldiers who fell at Glencoe.—In all the Catholic churches of London, on Sunday, October 22, prayers were offered for the officers and men of the Dublin Fusiliers who fell in the memorable charge at Glencoe, Natal. References from the pulpit were also made to the heroic conduct of the troops, the majority of whom were Catholics. At St. George's Cathedral the Rev. F. Mason said that the Catholics had been accused of being disloyal to their country, but conclusive proof had now been given that they were always ready to bear their share of the burdens of this country, and were the first to sacrifice their lives to the call of duty. Indeed, the history of the wars of the present century had proved that Irish Catholic soldiers were always in the front on the battlefield, and by their great courage had often gained the day. This was an answer to people who accused Irish Catholics of being disloyal to a country which had ill-treated their race. It has been proposed to hold a memorial service for the troops of the Dublin Fusiliers who fell at Glencoe, and it will probably take the form of a Requiem Mass in one of the large Catholic churches of London.

Reception Ceremony at Nottingham.—Miss Anna Doyle, eldest daughter of Mr. Thomas Doyle, Scullabogue, Carrigbyrne, County Wexford, was recently received into the Order of the Little Company of Mary, at Nottingham. The ceremony was performed by the Most Rev. Dr. Bagshawe, Bishop of Nottingham, assisted by his nephew, Rev. Stephen Vray.

The Duke of Norfolk and the Pope.—The Duke of Norfolk, in addition to his usual donation of £10,000 to Peter's Pence, will this year present the Pope with a magnificent amethyst.

The Bishop of Nottingham's Silver Jubilee.—His Lordship the Most Rev. Edward Gilpin Bagshawe, Bishop of Nottingham, has just celebrated his episcopal Silver Jubilee. Dr. Bagshawe is a native of London, and the son of a county court judge. His brother is also on the county bench. He is a Liberal in politics, warmly in favour of Home Rule for Ireland, on account of which he is dearly loved by the Irish people. Wherever a voice was needed in England on Ireland's behalf Dr. Bagshawe's was raised. He has been for years and still is a fearless advocate of Ireland's rights, and no one has so strongly brought home to English Catholics their obligations to Catholic Ireland and to the Irish Catholics who helped to rebuild the Church in England. When the Home Rule cause was unpopular this high-minded, courageous English prelate stood out as a fearless champion. Among those
