

Whakatane

(From an occasional correspondent.)

On Friday, October 19, his Lordship Bishop Lenihan arrived at Whakatane, where he spent a few days, and enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. W. Regan, an old friend of his. His Lordship officiated on Sunday, twenty-six European and Maori candidates receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation. Most of the representative Catholics waited on his Lordship during his stay, and by his genial and friendly ways he won the respect of many non-Catholic friends he came in contact with.

On Monday, October 22, he was driven to Matata by Mr. W. Lees, also an old Auckland friend of his. Here a hearty welcome was given him by Very Rev. Dean Lightheart, Father Holierhoek, Father Schoonhof, the good Sisters of St. Joseph, and some of the local people, European as well as Maori. A few arches, having suitable inscriptions of welcome, with some flags and bunting, gave the little township quite a festive aspect. A goodly number of Catholics received the Sacrament of Confirmation.
