"COALBROOKDALE."

This far-famed Westport Coal is unsurpassed for steaming purposes in point of evaporative power and economy. One of the Consulting Engineers to the Admiralty states: "Coalbrookdale Coals are much superior to the best New South Wales Coal." In regard to economy, "Coalbrookdale" saves half the expense of cartage, stacking, storing, &c., and gives double the heat of any Lignite in the colony. Blacksmiths assert that nothing equals "Coalbrookdale." Housewives and Cooks find "Coalbrookdale" unequalled for cooking and baking.

STARVING

IN THE MIDST OF PLENTY.

That is what people with poor digestion are doing every day.

They eat a little, and it brings discomfort; it gives pain and wind; it causes headaches and restlessness.

No wonder. Food undigested cannot do good. It cannot sustain or benefit.

Food must pass through the various organs—stomach, liver, bowels, &c.—but when the stomach is weak, and the digestive organs out of order, food simply rots and decays in place of digesting.

And, of course, food that is not digested cannot be assimilated and used for building up the body.

Is there any wonder that people with weak stomachs and weak livers starve and almost hate the sight of food.

Listen: This is local testimony.

"I have derived much benefit from Tamer Juice, and feel bound in common gratitude to let you know. For two years I suffered all the agony that a sour and weak stomach could give. Food always pained me, and would not digest. I was so bad at times that I could neither work nor sleep. The doctor did not seem to understand my case. Mr. Hamder, of Linwood, strongly advised your Tamer Juice, and I took it according to directions—about 25 drops after meals. The very first bottle wonderfully relieved me—it seemed to just touch the spot. Four bottles have made me well—none of the old headaches or stomach pains, and my bowels are as regular as any person could desire. I can digest all my meals without any discomfort, and the fact that I was so bad is now merely a memory.

A. S. BECHAM, Sydenham."

The good that Tamer Juice does is full and complete. It cleanses and strengthens all the organs of digestion. Take a few drops after meals: it will mix with the food; will act in harmony with the digestive process; will itself help and assist in the digestion of good food.

Dr. Ensor's Tamer Juice is slightly laxative—it gently carries off all the waste that is not required. This is one of the necessary virtues in a perfect digestive medicine, and Dr. Ensor's Tamer Juice is perfect.—Sold by good chemists and grocers in bottles—2/6 each.
