

Sacred Heart Girls' College, Christchurch

Re-opens Monday 16th February, 1925.

This first-class boarding and day school has a dominion reputation, and pupils from all parts of New Zealand are to be found within its walls preparing for the various Academic, University, Music and other examinations.

Domestic Science, Cooking, Dressmaking, Plain and Fancy Needlework are taught to all the pupils. The greatest attention is paid to the health, deportment, manners, religious instruction and general training of the pupils

For terms, etc., apply to the

REV. MOTHER PRIORESS.

J. O'Rourke

IMPORTER OF MERCERY, HOSIERY, HATS, SHIRTS.
All Goods direct from MANUFACTURER to CUSTOMER

STAFFORD
STREET

Timaru