

Act 4 of the opera "Carmen" will be presented by means of gramophone records with full description by the announcer.

ON Saturday evening a vaudeville programme will be given. The orchestral items include the overture "The Crusader," a cornet and trombone duet by Messrs. Sneddon and Capes, entitled "Watchman, What of the Night," an orchestral novelty "Two Brass Men," and a musical comedy selection "Queen High." The Melodie Four will be heard in songs and concerted numbers, both grave and gay. An item of outstanding interest will be the first appearance of Will Haigh and his pal Johnny. This will be a ventriloquist turn. Mr. Haigh has appeared with success at several of the Australian broadcasting stations and his items will certainly create a good deal of interest and curiosity amongst listeners. Mr. Len Ashton, the popular entertainer, will present two humorous numbers, "Them Were Days" and "Don't Do That to the Poor Puss Cat." Mrs. Mildred Kenny's Steel Guitar Trio will be heard in several Hawaiian numbers, adding further novelty to an already entertaining evening.

3YA Items

CHRISTCHURCH Anglican Cathedral evening service will be broadcast on Sunday, commencing at 7 o'clock. Prior to the Cathedral service there will be a studio concert, commencing at 6.30. Miss Nellie Lowe (contralto) and the Studio Trio will contribute.

Mr. E. J. Bell, public librarian of Christchurch, will give his fortnightly book review on Monday evening.

The programme arranged by Mr. R. J. Estall of the Woolston Band for Monday evening comprises two marches "Duntroon" and "Rearguard," the intermezzo "In a Persian Market," a collection of Border songs and ballads, trombone solo with band accompaniment and a foxtrot, "That's Her Now."

The vocalists engaged for Monday evening are Mrs. Moana Lawrence, Miss Elizabeth Vass and Mr. Robert Allison. Two recitations will be given by Mr. Harold Shaw and instrumental numbers will be played by the Studio Trio.

LOVERS of good music will find Wednesday's programme much to their liking. There will be operatic numbers taken from "Maritana," "Merrie England," "Faust" and "Veronique." On the miscellaneous side of the programme will be such fine solos as "On the Road to Mandalay" and "The Death of Nelson." The vocalists will be Miss Corrie Aslin, Miss Dulcie Mitchell, Mr. H. Blakeley and Mr. J. Graham Young. Instrumental items will be played by the Bohemian Quintet.

On Wednesday evening Mr. Sydney Francis Hoben will give another of his lecture-recitals which prove so popular.

On Thursday evening 3YA will re-broadcast the concert to be presented by the Hawke's Bay Radio Society.

A MISCELLANEOUS programme, to be followed by a dance music session will be broadcast on Friday evening. Mrs. Ralph Sierakowski, Mr. Arthur T. Couch and Mr. Bernard Rennell will be singing, also Mr. Jock Lockhart who will be heard in his always popular Scottish songs and patter. Duets to be sung by the Dandy Duo will be "A Paradise for Two" (from "Maid of the Mountains") and "The Keys of Heaven."

A talk by Mr. D. E. Parton, telegraph engineer, will be given on Friday evening. This will be another of the very interesting series of lectures on "Tree Trimming."

SATURDAY evening's programme will be an entertaining vaudeville concert. Soprano and tenor vocalists will be Mrs. L. B. Salkeld and Mr. W. J. Trewern respectively. Mr. Charles Lawrence, the entertainer, will be contributing, also Mr. George Titchener. Miss Elaine Moody's Hawaiian Instrumental Trio will be welcomed, and Mr. Les Grummitt, who has not appeared at 3YA for some time, will play some of his very clever improvisations on the piano.

4YA Items

THE service in Moray Place Congregational Church will be broadcast on Sunday evening. The Rev. Albert Mead, M.A., will be the preacher. A relay of the concert to be given by the Artillery Band in His Majesty's Theatre will follow.

KERKER'S famous musical play "The Belle of New York" will occupy the second half of Monday evening's programme. It will be presented by The Majors, under the direction of Mr. T. J. Kirk-Burnham. The first half of the programme will consist of miscellaneous items, the soloists being Miss Freda Elmes, Miss Dorothy Skinner, Mr. J. Montague, and Mr. L. M. Cachemaille, singing "One Morning Very Early," "Death and the Maiden," "Little Yvette," and "Waiata Maori," respectively. There will be items by the Studio Trio.

On Tuesday evening Mr. Lloyd Ross, M.A., LL.B., will give a talk under the auspices of the W.E.A. on "The Machine Age."

A POPULAR programme will be presented by the St. Kilda Band on Tuesday evening. The items will include two marches, "The University" and "Guard of Honour," a fantasia "Military Church Parade," a selection "Sanderson's Popular Songs," Raymond's "Rose Garland," and "The Bells of Blighty" waltz. There will also be a cornet solo, "Somewhere a Voice is Calling." The vocalists for the evening will be Miss Lettie de Clifford and Miss Mary Somerville. Elocutionary numbers will be given by Miss Sheila Neilson.

On Wednesday evening the Dunedin Burns Club will celebrate the Sir Walter Scott anniversary with a concert in the Early Settlers' Hall. This entertainment will be relayed by 4YA.

On Thursday evening 4YA will broadcast the Hastings concert.

Mr. H. Greenwood, librarian at the Athenaeum, will give his "Book Review" on Friday evening.

The 4YA Harmonists will provide the vocal portion of the musical programme on Friday evening, concerted as well as solo numbers being given. The instrumentalists will be the Studio Trio.

Saturday evening's programme will be relayed from 3YA.

Children's Sessions

AT 1YA.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 20.

Very special stories from Uncle George and birthday greetings. Songs and recitations from cousins.

WEDNESDAY.

Uncle Tom in a happy mood, and our boy soprano, Kirk, with solos. Also duets from Kirk and Joan.

THURSDAY.

Peter Pan and Cinderella will conduct the Hour from the Ranges, so get ready Radio Family to climb up there with them and visit the shack. Mouth-organ music from Esenelle.

FRIDAY.

Nod and Aunt Jean invite the boys and girls to accompany them to Radioland this evening and to share in the fun and join in the singing.

SATURDAY.

The orchestra from Mount Albert Grammar School will provide the music, so that is something to look forward to. Cinderella will have stories to tell and puzzles to keep the little folk thinking.

SUNDAY.

Children's Song Service, conducted by Uncle Leo, assisted by the Beresford Street Sunday School.

AT 2YA.

MONDAY, AUGUST 19.—Our cheery friends—the boys of the Mouth Organ Symphony Orchestra—will have some more jolly tunes for Radioland to-night. And Little Cousin Betty with her charming recitations will be here with Uncle Jeff, who will have more puzzles and greetings.

TUESDAY.—Three clever little Welsh Cousins are coming to the Studio to-night to sing and recite. Their names are Irene, Gwendoline, and Glyn. Uncle Jim will have a new story and many cheery greetings to give.

THURSDAY.—Cousin Margaret will have songs and poems for Radio family to-night. Cousin Dorothy will sing a little song and play merry tunes on the vibraphone. Greetings for the little folk from Uncle George.

FRIDAY.—Cousin Marjorie will sing to-night, Norma and Don will recite, and Raymond and Theo play pianoforte duets. What a jolly little party they will be. Then there will be Big Brother Jack to complete the happy hour, with Robinson and his merry crew.

SATURDAY.—The pupils of Miss Joy Hoare are once again coming to entertain Radioland, and then there will be greetings from Uncle Toby and Aunt Gwen.

SUNDAY.—The children's song service will be conducted by Uncle George, assisted by Cambridge Terrace Congregational Sunday School Choir under Mr. Reynolds.

AT 3YA.

MONDAY, AUGUST 19.—Hear something fresh about the windows of your own and other people's homes. To-night Scatterjoy will tell you some surprising facts about a simple pane of glass. Also, special fare for any one obliged to spend some time in Blanket Bay, Bedfordshire, and Pillowland. Good games you can play without putting so much as a finger nail outside the bedclothes.

WEDNESDAY.—Mother Hubbard and Uncle Frank, with fresh songs and stories to fill this hour with gladness for all.

THURSDAY.—To-night the pupils of Miss Naare Hooper are coming along to help Uncle John cheer you.

FRIDAY.—Storyman arrives to-night with a big bag full of lovely gramophone songs and music—and he always has such lovely stories to tell you, young and old!

The end of a pleasant evening ~

Is always marked by a cosy little supper. Next evening YOU have, serve dainty golden brown cakes and scones of your own baking. A few spoonfuls of—added while you are mixing them and you'll be ever so proud of the result. More delicious—better appearance—and they keep fresh for DAYS longer.

ANCHOR SKIM MILK POWDER

Price 1/2 per Tin

Your Grocer can supply.

Free Recipe Folder of Tested Recipes—write "Anchor," Box 644, Auckland.

TAKE Pulmonas
RELIEF BY INHALATION
FOR COUGHS AND COLDS