

rendered as concerted numbers, Messrs. Berthold and Bent will render steel guitar and Hawaiian selections, sketches supervised by Mr. Victor Lloyd, and orchestral selections of a light type by the studio orchestra will contribute to a fine week-end programme.

3YA Notes

SUNDAY'S church service will be relayed from the Church of Christ, Moorhouse Avenue, the preacher being Pastor A. R. Tebay. Following the church service, 3YA will rebroadcast 2YA's relay of the concert from His Majesty's Theatre given by the Wellington Municipal Tramways Band.

ON Monday evening an excellent programme arranged by Derry's Military Band will be presented from 3YA Studio, their items on this occasion including a Slavonic march—"The Entry of the Bulgars"—and pot pourri of airs, introducing many of the best-known classic and popular melodies. Miss Gwenda Tomkin and Miss Nellie Billcliff will appear for the first time in a duo role in lighter selections. Miss Mayis Kinsella will also make a re-appearance after an absence of some six months in humorous recitals.

WEDNESDAY'S operatic and miscellaneous programme will include selections from "Merrie England," Wagner's "Meistersingers" and Gounod's "Faust." Miss Nellie Lowe will be heard in two contralto numbers from the Woodforde-Finden Suite, "A Lover in Damascus," whilst soprano solos will be rendered by Miss Merle Miller. "Caro Mio Ben" and "Placer d'Amor." The instrumental trio will contribute to an interesting evening's entertainment with "The Turkish Rondo" (Litolff) and selections from Wagner's "Meistersingers."

A PROGRAMME of classical and old English airs will symbolise Thursday's concert session, the programme being mainly in the hands of the Melodious Four. Their items will include Lane Wilson's "The Sailor's Life," "Sound the Merry Tambourin" by Harper, and the popular "Bells of St. Michael's Tower." Miss Maiona Juriss promises selections from Henry VIII., and the Dolce Duo will be heard in an arrangement of "The Londonderry Air." Mr. Harold Beck will play as a 'cello solo Schumann's "Slumber Song," and other instrumental selections will be presented by the Trio.

AFTER a long absence, Mr. Jack Smyth will return to the microphone on Friday's popular programme with the items "I've Turned Devonshire Down," and a character sketch, "The Old Sundowner." Scottish songs will be featured by Mr. Bracey Wilson, and banjoline items will be presented by the Rose and Thistle Duo. Popular dance items will be played by the Bailey Marston Dance Orchestra, the programme continuing until 11 p.m.

A FEAST of old-time music is in store on Saturday, when the whole programme will be devoted to old-time songs, dances and recitations, "Silver Threads Among the Gold," "Alice Where Art Thou," "Mary of Argyle," each give an inkling of what is sure to be one of the most popular broadcasts from 3YA for some time. The artists for the evening will include Mr. Bernard Rennell, Mrs. D. W. Stallard, Mr. L. C. Quane, and the Williams Orchestra, whilst Theo and Francis Gunther will be heard in concertina duos.

4YA Notes

ON Sunday, 4YA will broadcast the evening service from the Methodist Central Mission Church, the preacher being the Rev. G. B. Hinton. Following the church relay the St. Kilda Band concert will be broadcast from His Majesty's Theatre.

MONDAY'S operatic programme will introduce a new performer to listeners-in in the person of Madame Florence Carlson, whose contributions will include the popular "Samson and Delilah" selection, "Softly Awakes My Heart," and Borgia's "Brindisi." Mr. Angus Gorrie will continue his series with the poets, dealing this week with Oliver Wendel Holmes. Miss Dorothy Skinner, Messrs. Les Stubbs and W. Harrison will also contribute vocal items, whilst the studio trio will provide instrumental selections. Mrs. Ernest Drake will play as a pianoforte solo Paradies' "Toccata," an old Italian style of composition.

THE St. Kilda Band will contribute to the main portion of Tuesday's broadcast, and included among their numbers will be Introduction to "Faust," and selections from "Maritana." The assisting artists will include Mr. A. G. Cooke, bass, who will sing Mascheroni's "Thou Art My Life" and the popular "Peg Away." Miss Valda McCurdy will make her welcome reappearance before the microphone, and her fine soprano voice will be heard to excellent effect in "The Waltz Song," from "Tom Jones." Elocutionary items will be provided by Miss Beryl Cooper.

WEDNESDAY evening's programme will be a musical treat for 4YA listeners, the occasion being the complete broadcast of the Dunedin Choral Society's presentation of German's "Merrie England." This light opera is one of the most popular and famous with the musical public, and the Dunedin Society can be depended upon to provide an excellent rendition under the baton of their conductor, Mr. H. P. Desmoulin.

A SELECTION of classical, both vocal and instrumental, items of unusual merit will be presented on Friday. In addition Mr. G. M. Salmon, a well-known bass-baritone in Otago, will make his initial appearance before a Dunedin radio audience. His items will include Handel's "Hear Me Ye Winds and Waves" and "Bois Epaïs," by Lully. Miss Rae Stubbs, who has not appeared before the microphone for some six months, has selected three interesting numbers, including Brahms's "Love Triumphant." Miss Irene Horniblow's contralto voice will be heard to advantage in a Schubert bracket, "By the Sea" and the "Morning Greeting." The 4YA Broadcast Trio will play the Schubert-Liszt "Serenade," and Mr. C. Russell Smith will provide elocutionary items.

On Saturday evening 4YA will relay 3YA's special programme of old-time music.

Children's Sessions

1YA.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 10:

This evening, if they are in port, the orchestra from the "Northumberland" have promised to entertain the radio family. These boys are very old friends, and an hour with them is eagerly looked forward to. Uncle George on deck with stories.

WEDNESDAY:

Uncle Tom, having been away to the country for a few days, will have many adventures to tell, and a member of the Mount Eden Boys' Brass Band will blow us some merry tunes.

THURSDAY:

Peter Pan and Cinderella off to some new place to spend the children's hour. Cousins will go too, and will provide songs and recitations.

FRIDAY:

"Oh Where, Oh Where, Has Our Little Nod Gone?" He is deserting us for a month, so Aunt Jean is in charge, assisted by Ken and Jean.

SATURDAY:

Miss Reynolds is bringing her pupils to the studio, and they will provide a variety of items, while Cinderella will have stories and jokes to relate.

SUNDAY:

Children's song service conducted by Uncle Leo, assisted by the Grange Road Baptist Sunday School.

AT 2YA.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 9.—Uncle Jeff with song and puzzle will be here to-night, and will greet the birthday folk. We will have, too, a cheery little entertainer from the pupils of Miss Agnes Wright.

TUESDAY.—Uncle Jim will tell you where the fairy presents are hidden. We welcome for the first time to-night the Seatoun Children's Choral Society under Mr. Keith. The children will sing for you happy songs and sea chanties.

THURSDAY.—Uncle George will give the Birthday greetings. Cousin Marjorie will have a song and story for the little folk, Punch and Judy will make merry music, Ella will sing, and Cousin Herbert will bring his oboe and a lively book of nursery rhymes.

FRIDAY.—Big Brother Jack with cheery old Robinson to-night. The story book lady will be here, too, also cousins Sinclair and Eva, who will tell stories in verse and song. Cousin Oscar will play jolly tunes on his saxophone.

SATURDAY.—Uncle Toby and Aunt Gwen with Cousin Ailsa will be with you for the bedtime hour this evening, and a bright merry time is promised.

SUNDAY.—The Children's Song Service will be conducted by Uncle George assisted by the Taranaki Street Methodist Sunday School under Mr. W. E. Howe.

3YA SESSIONS

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 9:

"Scatterjoy a-journeying
Per Shank's pony and aeroplane;
Over the hills and dales we love,
Before we trip back home again.

WEDNESDAY:

Now, Wednesday comes, with Laughter and Fun,
Mother Hubbard her sweet songs
will trill.

Uncle Frank is here too, and he knows what to do,
And with stories this short hour
will fill.

THURSDAY:

In his bag that he carries
Uncle John has to-night
Some gramophone records, quite cheery.

And with stories so true,
Both for me and for you,
That he leaves us with hearts
bright and merry.

FRIDAY:

This is the night that some choristers
come
(Continued on page 25.)

A Cooking Hint

—One that means lighter, fluffier, more delicious scones and cakes—with higher food value and a much longer period of freshness.

Add a few spoonfuls of ANCHOR SKIM MILK POWDER to every mixture.

Ask your grocer for "ANCHOR" TO-DAY.

PRICE 1/2 PER TIN.

Free Recipe Folder—write to "Anchor," Box 844, Auckland.

