AMAZING NEW HEALTH APPLIANCE RE-invigorate your body - this New Easy Way

Startling Claims made for Strange New Ray-o-active Appliance, invented by famous European Scientist Helps re-charge depleted Nerve and Brain Cells with Renewed Energy Aids System Generate New Vitality, New Strength, New Life

Emil Raymon, European Scientist - Inventor of the remarkable new Health Appliance, which has brought amazing relief to sufferers
 in all parts of the world.

ALL Europe has been thrilled by the recent discoveries that radio-active radiant heat has tremendous "healing" powers. Almost everyone you know is talking about the value of applied deep heat. You hear of its wonderful curative effects on every side. In the past few years this idea has been embraced and developed by a renowned Continental scientist into a new radio-activated health appliance, and this remarkable new mechanism has now achieved practically universal acceptance.

NOW—Ray-o-active Radiant Heat for Sick, Weak, Exhausted Bodies

It is now four years since this pioneer scientist demonstrated that his appliance, by supplying the therapeutic action of ray-o-active heat—in a way never before duplicated—brings amazing results in many disorders. This wonderful little appliance was primarily developed to enable sufferers to obtain the benefits of radiant heat right in their own home. Quietly, this scientist placed his discovery in the hands of specialists, sanatoriums, etc., and, most important of all, with thousands of ordinary people. The result was an immediate success, and within the past few years this idea has spread from country to country, from continent to continent. Now it has been tested by more than 150,000 people.

Minute by Minute—Hour by Hour

The most striking advantage of this unique scientific appliance is the convenient way in which radio-activated radiant heat can be self-applied. It does away with cumbersome and costly appliances. It is now no longer necessary to "wait one's turn" for an all-too-brief period of treatment. To-day the treatment can be self-applied, and that for a few moments at a stretch, but continuously day and night if required. And this continuous treatment creates not the slightest interference with one's work or pleasure, dress or habits. Users of this convenient health method can go about their affairs without drawing the slightest attention to the fact that they are minute by minute and hour by hour, benefiting by a form of treatment unseen by others. The great success of this form of treatment is due to its continuous character. It is not periodic or spasmodic. It continues working for the sufferer's welfare as long as required, and it can be applied or taken off immediately. When not in use, the mechanism is so small that it can be placed in the pocket.

Thousands Tell of Quick Relief

Thousands of folk, in their own words, are now telling how this marvellous appliance has given them more energy, greater strength. Many victims of a low tide of nervous force have been enabled to recharge their depleted nervous systems with a new vitality. Remarkable experiences have been related by well-known people, including lawyers, publicists, specialists, explorers, authors, educators, and men and women of all ages and in many widely different walks of life.

There is nothing so much akin to human life itself and to that vital force which maintains all the bodily organs in a healthy working efficiency as warmth. Both light and heat are unseen powers, both belong to the ethereal state, and probably nothing yet discovered can be expected to have so important a bearing upon human health as the mysterious power of heat when supplied within physiologic limits. It brings Health, VIGOUR, VITALITY, POWER.

FREE TEST—Sold on Trial Only

Most unusual of all is the fact that this remarkable radio-activated appliance is sold on trial only. YOU must be sure it is helping you before you buy it. Over 150,000 have been sold in Europe and America on this plan. Its use makes for the betterment of all phases of inefficient working of the nervous system, whether of the brain, spinal cord, or more local nervous network affecting the state of health of the organs, such as the stomach, heart, kidneys, lungs, etc. Sufferers claim it healed them of Rheumatism, Neuritis, Weakness, Exhaustion, Lumbago, Weak Back, High Blood Pressure, Constipation, Chest Complaints, Heart, Liver, Stomach, Bladder and Lung Ailments, etc., after all other treatments had failed to benefit. No matter what you have taken or what treatment you have used, try this marvellous ray-o-active appliance at OUR risk.
