

In a day or two now we will be watching old 1934 tottering off into oblivion. He's been a useful fellow—taught us a lot of things, restored a certain measure of prosperity and broken down century-old barriers. But 1935 is here, waiting for a welcome. Let us all extend a glad hand. The "Radio Record," too, extends the hand of goodwill to its readers and wishes them all joy and prosperity in the coming year.

(Posed by Shirley Temple, Fox Film star)