

In Tune With Our Times

Lady Statham, wife of the Speaker of the House of Representatives, who is to speak from 2YA on Monday evening on Cleopatra. At the present time Lady Statham, who is, by the way, a member of an old Otago family, is being visited by her daughter, Mrs. Godric Muntz, who arrived from England with her husband and baby daughter a few days ago.—A Spencer Digby study.

Lord Baden Powell (above) Chief Scout, who will be heard in a recorded talk from 4YA at 2.15 p.m. on Sunday. Lord Baden Powell has lately been touring New Zealand and receiving tumultuous welcomes from Scouts and Guides.

Florence Desmond, the well-known impersonator of film stars, who will be heard in a number from "Stream-line," C. B. Cochran's latest revue, from 2YA on Friday evening.

A London caricaturist's idea of Sybil Thorndike who will be heard in a recorded play, "To Meet the King," from 2YA on Friday evening. Dame Sybil is at present in New York where she is presenting John Van Druten's play, "The Staff Side."

One of the leading lights in the Australian musical world is Professor Bernard Heinze (right). The professor will be heard from 3LO, Melbourne next week in a celebrity concert by the Melbourne Symphony Orchestra.

