

Household Hints

DYEING by an amateur often results in a streaky effect. To avoid this put the dye in a soap shaker and work this about in the water in which the garment is put. This also prevents the hands from becoming stained.

CHAIR-BACK covers on leather suites can be kept in place by making a pocket at top and bottom, and inserting in each a flat strip of brass or lead. These will lie flat and be easily removed for laundering purposes.

POLISHED dining tables will be kept in a very good condition if after every meal a cloth wrung out in vinegar and water is used to wipe them over. This saves a good deal of unnecessary polishing.

Oak tables that are very much begrimed will be improved by this treatment. Scrub with soft soap to which

Knitting Articles Next Week

Readers will no doubt greet with pleasure the news that, starting next week, a series of knitting articles will appear regularly in the "Radio Record." The first of these will contain full directions for knitting a delightful jumper-cardigan—one of those popular garments that are so smart for walking, golf or office wear.

a small handful of soda is added, repeating two or three times if necessary; then wipe over with linseed oil, let this soak in, and the next day wipe over again with a little methylated spirit. Clean with furniture polish in the usual way.

NET curtains are easily washed at home. Shake first to free from loose dust, squeeze in warm, soapy water, and rinse in warm water, and then in cold gum water. Wring by hand and stretch out to their original size on a table. When only damp, iron on the wrong side with a moderate iron. Put to air immediately.

operations of diplomats, business and professional men might more readily be seen and understood, the service they would render to those at home who are waiting for some indication of the return of prosperity, would be immeasurable. This is a suggestion sent out by those who genuinely regard this fair as an opportunity for women to add yet another leaf to the record of their Empire service.

OF COURSE HE'S FED UP
YOU'RE ALWAYS TIRED AND WASHED OUT.
YOUR NERVES ARE BAD AND YOU CAN'T SLEEP.

Be frank with yourself! Perhaps housework and children have absorbed your youth, strain and worry sapped your energy and impaired your digestion. But your husband has worries too. Unless you can share them and help him find recreation he may look elsewhere for sympathy. Turn to Wincarnis, the delicious tonic wine Doctors have been recommending for over 50 years, the wine which has literally meant new life to thousands after serious illness. Wincarnis replaces lost energy by creating new blood to nourish the nerves and tissues. It brings you new vivacity and vigour. It helps you to sleep soundly—to be yourself once more, the woman he married, the woman he still desires.

Wincarnis is simply a pure delicious wine reinforced with the energising vitamins, the nerve-building and tonic properties of malt and beef extracts. Wincarnis has been proved by over 20,000 recommendations from Doctors to be the most effective remedy for all run down conditions and nervous complaints. 5/6 pints, 9/- quarts. Get a bottle to-day from your chemist. You'll feel the benefit with your very first glass.
