N.Z. Radio Call-Book

Latest Edition Just Out

HALF the pleasure of owning a radio receiver is lost unless one has a reliable and up-to-date call-book on hand for reference. For this purpose the 1935 winter edition of the "N.Z. Radio Call Book," now on sale, can be thoroughly recommended.

In it are listed thousands of stations, broadcast and short-wave, all over the world, together with full details, such as call, address, wavelength, frequency, power, and, in many instances, hours of operation. Neither time nor expense has been spared to obtain the latest official station lists direct from the countries concerned.

The first stations to be listed are the New Zealand and Australian; a composite list of these stations arranged in order of dial reading is also included, and will be found a particularly handy one, as it enables listeners to identify a new station almost immediately it is tuned in.

Next follow details of the broadcast stations in other parts of the world—in Japan, China, Manchuria, Mexico, Cuba, Argentine, Brazil, Uruguay, Chili, Central and South America, Siam, India, Africa, Europe, United States, Canada. Then follows a list of over 100 of the principal short-wave stations in the world, together with hours of operation, in New Zealand Standard Time. The latest list of the New Zealand amateur stations follows next.

The book is printed throughout on high-quality paper, has an attractive two-colour cover, and is of a handy size to fit the pocket. It is available from all booksellers and stationers, price 1/-, or direct from Box 1680, Wellington, price 1/1 posted.

American amateurs, on 20 m. phone, show a big improvement. Several stations heard well to-day with good volume.

JVN, Japan, 28.14 m., programme of Japanese music. Signals R6, QSA5, at 10.24 p.m.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 1.

RNE, Russia, 25 m., with a good musical programme. Signals R7, QSA5, at 7.15 a.m.
