£20 MISSING WORDS £20

COMPETITION

Introducing the 6d. Entrance Fee
(one entry); or 3 entries for 1/-

For sheer simplicity, this economical competition cannot be beaten. Just five minutes' thought may win you £20.

Ten words have been omitted from the paragraph below which appeared in its entirety in a New Zealand paper. All you have to do is to fill in the gaps with the correct words. Each numbered gap has a similarly numbered clue. These clues, with the sense of the paragraph to assist, should enable you to find the missing word (one only) for each gap. Now try your skill.

PROBLEM.

While (1) were loading (2) into a (3) at the Armstrong Whitworth (4) at Newcastle, some (5) exploded. The (6) sank and the shell (7) was nearly (8). Buildings over a (9) area were (10).

CLUES TO MISSING WORDS.

(1) Adult males; (2) munitions; (3) a shallow boat;
(4) factory; (5) a powerful explosive; (6) a shallow boat;
(7) room; (7) shattered; (9) broad; (10) partly spoiled.

NOTE THESE RULES:—

1. Your solution (to be in ink) need not give the whole paragraph. Merely write down the missing words in their orders on plain paper.

2. Add your name and full residential address.

3. Enclose 6d. (stamps) for one entry; 1s. postal note for three entries. Additional entries are 6d. each.

4. Entries must be postmarked not later than 12th July. Address to "Missing Words Competition," G.P.O. Box 1580, Wellington.

5. The prize of £20 will be awarded to the competitor who sends in the correct or most nearly correct solution. In the event of a tie, prize money will be divided accordingly.

6. Competitors agree to accept the decision of the adjudicators as final.

Sealed solution and prize-money are deposited with the "New Zealand Radio Record." Results will appear in this paper on 19th July.
