

10 YEARS IN ENTERTAINMENT

ing to get into the theatres showing these new "see and hear" movies.

Gladys Moncrieff, whose arrival in New Zealand last week was an event of considerable interest for radio listeners, came round in 1929 in "Rio Rita," a musical play that ran for two years in Australia and New Zealand. There were other interesting visits—but they were few and far between. A Gilbert and Sullivan season was most successful; Margaret Rawlings presented two plays—the first, "The Barrets of Wimpole Street," was most successful, the second, "Happy and Glorious," played to empty houses; Madge Elliot and Cyril Ritchard came through the Dominion with "Blue Roses" and "Follow Through"; Dame Sybil Thorndike presented some wonderful plays, perhaps the greatest being Shaw's "Saint Joan." "The Dubarry" did good business in some cities last year—and bad in others. "Ten Minute Alibi" and "The Wind and the Rain" did good business in EVERY city and town in the country—the most heartening sign of returning public favour in six years.

WHY is it that while books in praise of England are always written by Frenchmen, and books in praise of France are always written by Englishmen, books in praise of Germany are always written by Germans?—Mr. Philip Guedalla.

Can You Solve This Simple Puzzle?

Don't miss this splendid one-week competition! It is just a short and easily worded paragraph about "A narrow escape," which appeared in a New Zealand newspaper some time ago and has now been put into puzzle form by our artist. The opening words "The horse . . ." will tell you what it is all about—and for the rest, the wording is simple and the sense of the sentence will help you. Each picture or sign may mean part of a word, one, two or three words, but not more than three. Errors are calculated on the basis of the number of words wrong.

Solve the puzzle carefully and write your solution IN INK on one side of a sheet of paper. Add your name and residential address, and post entry to:—

"PUZZLE PIE," No. 102 R.
BOX 950, G.P.O., CHRISTCHURCH.

READ THESE RULES CAREFULLY.

All entries must be postmarked not later than TUESDAY, JULY 16.

The First Prize of £100 will be awarded to the competitor whose solution of the paragraph is correct, or most nearly correct. In case of ties, the prize-money will be divided, but the full amount will be paid.

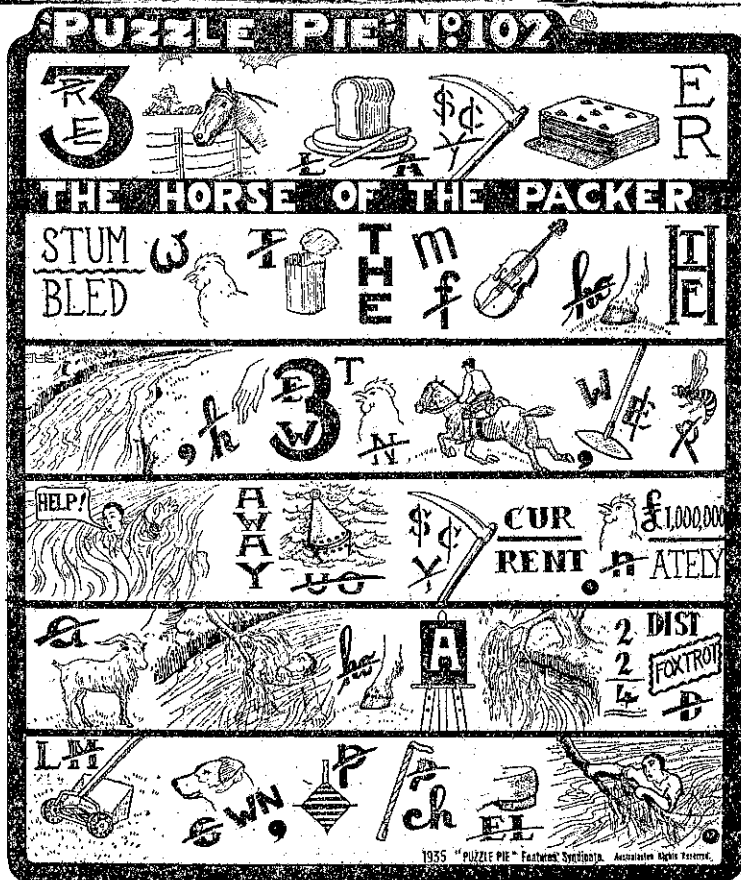

Scaled Solution and £100 Prize-money is deposited with "Truth" (N.Z.), Ltd. A postal-note for 1/- must accompany each initial entry and 6d. each additional entry. Stamps not accepted. Any number of alternatives may be sent on plain paper. Alternatives in single entries will be disqualified. Post Office addresses not accepted. Results will be published on Friday, July 26.

SOLUTION TO "PUZZLE PIE," No. 100.

Paragraph from "The Otago Daily Times," June 13, 1912.

"The horse which the King rode at various reviews and other functions in India gave his Majesty such satisfaction that it was purchased and brought to England. The animal, which is a splendid specimen, is now in the Royal Mews at Buckingham Palace."
