Story of Richard Seddon Comes to Life in "Railways Magazine"

See the July issue of the "New Zealand Railways Magazine" for Mr. James Cowan's vivid portrayal of "King Dick." The scroll of time unrolls and the warrior Liberal leader is here again—a very dramatic figure.

See "The Romance of the Red Funnel," in which Mr. O. N. Gillespie brightly tells the story of "how the U.S.S. Co. of N.Z. grew to be one of the world's mightiest fleets of merchantmen."

See the new chapter of "New Zealand Journey" in which Margaret Macpherson revives the colourful past of the old gold days of Central Otago and reveals the modern charm of Dunedin.

See a thrilling story, humorous sketches, breezy comment on books and authors, original verse, helpful notes for women—big features for the whole public.

See the great gallery of sixty pictures.
