

Radio Record

THE JOURNAL OF ENTERTAINMENT

June 19, 1936.

(Registered as a Newspaper, G.P.O., Wellington.)

Price 4d.

SECOND GREAT LIMERICK CONTEST

ENTER NOW—NO ENTRANCE FEE

COMPLETE THIS LIMERICK

When your "B" Batteries start to run
low,
And your purse isn't bulging with dough,
Try Columbia "B"
They're Layerbilt, "see"

WIN ONE OF THESE PRIZES.

- 1st Prize. 3 Columbia Layerbilt Heavy Duty B Batteries worth £4/10/-.
2nd Prize. One 3-cell Columbia Focus-sing Torch Complete.
3rd Prize. One 2-cell Columbia Focus-sing Torch Complete.

WINNERS OF NO. 1 LIMERICK CONTEST.

The standard of all entries was particularly high and the judges had a very long and arduous task.

- 1st Prize.—Mrs. L. Neilson, 9 Follett St., Marton.
2nd Prize.—Miss E. Lawson, Wickliffe Terrace, Port Chalmers.
3rd Prize.—Two entries tied for 3rd place: E. J. Schaeffer, "Waimoe," Porangahau, and Mrs. Eileen Barr, Blue Spur, Lawrence, Otago.

It's interesting! It's simple! It's easy! And no irksome conditions to worry about. Just complete the last line of the limerick shown at right and post your entry to.

"COMPETITION," c/o MESSRS. ELLIS AND CO., BOX 506, AUCKLAND. This competition is open to BATTERY SET OWNERS ONLY. You stand an excellent chance of winning one of these handsome prizes—so send in your entry right away. The decision of the judges is final. Competition closes July 31. Always use Columbia Batteries for reliability—volume—and longer life.

British Made

COLUMBIA
TRADE MARK
LAYER BILT
RADIO BATTERIES

