TOPICAL TITBITS No. 31 2 ENTRIES FOR 1/-

This is a simple Picture Puzzle about "THE SHORTEST DAY." Each symbot or picture may represent ONE WOED OR PART OF ONE WORD ONLY. To help you, the opening words are given. Can you complete the paragraph? Much of the wording is given you, and that, together with the sense of the paragraph generally, will help you to solve the pictures as you come to them. If a competitor considers that this puzzle contains alternatives the minimum entry fee of 1/- will be sufficient for one or two solutions. Solutions after the first two 6d. each. When you have read the puzzle through, write out your solution or solutions, together with your name and address, and post, together with entry fee (1/- for one or two solutions and 6d. for each additional solution) by postal note (unless unprocurable, when stamps 1/1 will be accepted) to Topical Tithits, No. 31, G.P.O. Box 627R, Christchurch, bearing the postmark not later than Tuesday, June 30, 1936.

REMEMBER—EACH PICTURE REPRESENTS ONE WORD OR PART OF ONE WORD ONLY.

RULES-THE FIRST PRIZE OF £40

will be awarded to the competitor whose solution of the paragraph is correct or most nearly correct. In the event of ties prize-money will be divided equally. Alterations cannot be accepted. Misspelt words and abbreviations count as errors. Post Office addresses not accepted. The decision of the adjudicators must be accepted as final. No competitor may win more than one share of the prize-money. No correspondence relating to Topical Titbits No. 31 will be entered into after one month from closing date. Prize-money and scaled solution have been lodged with "N.Z. Truth" as a guarantee of good faith but not so as to involve that paper in the liability of stakeholder or otherwise.
