DOMINION HEALTH BUREAU,
P.O. Box 609A, Wellington.

DURING Hitler's recent "election" campaign, he was accompanied on his tour of Germany by a team of radio technicians and radio equipment, including three special desks with microphones and switches, one in reserve and the others of different shapes to suit different halls. The radio brigade had an aeroplane at its disposal.

MR. BOAKE CARTER, who talked from the Columbia (U.S.A.) network on King George on January 21, received 100,000 requests for copies of his talk; 10,000 were from members of the Canadian Parliament, probably for distribution in Canada. The requests were accompanied sometimes by money, jubilee postage stamps, buttons from service uniforms of world war veterans, and sprigs of heather, etc. The money was given to charity.
