

Sayings of the Week

ANYTHING that serves the interests of Germany is justifiable.—Herr Hans Wesemann.

AS an aggressive Power we have retired from business. Our present address is Dunrobin Castle.—Dr. Inge.

AT matinees, says Mr. Cochran, women pay for their own seats, and he drops the price. Isn't that the argument in a nutshell? Down with dear stalls!—Mr. Robert Harcourt.

THIS flying business is a very much over-rated pastime.—Flight Lieutenant T. Rose.

A GERMAN closes a book in which it is stated that the law of Moses was given to him.—Bishop Weidemann.

I MADE up my mind about marriage when I was 12, and that was that no artist ought ever to marry. Marriage for a creative artist is quite intolerable.—Dame Ethel Smyth.

CAN YOU SOLVE THIS SIMPLE PUZZLE?

Don't miss this splendid one-week competition! It is just a short and easily-worded paragraph about A PRUTTY PARISIKNNE, which appeared in a New Zealand newspaper some time ago and has now been put into puzzle form by our artist. The opening words, "Recently at . . ." will tell you what it is all about--and for the rest, the wording is simple and the sense of the sentence will help you. Each picture or sign may mean part of a word, one, two or three words, but not more than three. Errors are calculated on the basis of the number of words wrong.

Solve the puzzle carefully and write your solution IN INK on one side of a sheet of paper. Sign your name and residential address and post entry to:

"PUZZLE PIE" NO. 155R,
BOX 950, G.P.O., CHRISTCHURCH.

READ THESE RULES CAREFULLY.

All entries must be postmarked not later than Tuesday, July 21.

The First Prize of £100 will be awarded to the competitor whose solution of the paragraph is correct or most nearly correct, and the other prizes in order of merit. In the case of ties, any or all of the prizes may be added together and divided, but the full amount will be paid. No competitor may win more than one prize or share of a prize in any one competition.

Seried solution and $130.00 money is deposited with "Truth" (N.Z.) Ltd. A postal note for 1/- must accompany each initial entry and 6d each additional entry. Penny stamps (1/1) accepted if postal note unobtainable. Any number of attempts may be sent on plain paper. Alternatives in single entries will be disqualified. Post Office addresses not accepted. Results will be published on Friday, July 31.
