

The INQUIRING REPORTER asks the Radio Record

Q: What's all this fuss about your Christmas Number? Is it something extra special?

A: Modestly speaking, it's going to be something extra, extra special. Special illustrations on art paper, lots of good articles by well-known writers and so on.

Q: Will it interest the person who's away on holiday and a long way from a radio set?

A: It certainly will. All the radio programmes will be there as usual, of course, but the general reading matter will give readers the best sixpenn'orth in a month of Sundays.

Xmas Issue
ON SALE EVERYWHERE NEXT WEEK

6d

