

Film Record

by
GORDON MIRAMIS

Top left: Action Pictures introduce a new child star, Hazel Ascot, a dancing prodigy, in the British production, "Stepping Toes." Top centre: The marriage of Louis XVI and Marie Antoinette—Robert Morley and Norma Shearer in a scene from M.G.M.'s "Marie Antoinette." Top right: Melvyn Douglas seems to know what's coming to him in this scene from the Action Pictures' release, "The Vampire Bat." In the centre: Merle Oberon, soon to be seen with Gary Cooper in Goldwyn's "The Cowboy and the Lady."

A REAL PICTURE
To be released shortly

"MAYERLING"

STARRING
Charles BOYER Danielle DARRIEUX

The sensational film that is taking America by storm—smashing long-run records in England—and enjoying all-time attendance records on the Continent.

METROPOLITAN FILMS
A.P.A. Buildings, Grey Street,
WELLINGTON.
(Awaiting Censor's Certificate.)

According to Hollywood, there was a triangular romance behind the building of the Suez Canal. In the big 20th Century-Fox production, "Suez," this is interpreted by Tyrone Power and Loretta Young (seen above) and the French star, Annabella. On the right: George Formby takes off in his new comedy, "It's In The Air."